The Humble

ADDRESS

Of the Right Honourable the

Lords Spiritual & Temporal

In PARLIAMENT Assembled.

Die Lune 16. Decembris, 1695.

E the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, Having taken into our Serious Consideration the great Mischief which is brought upon this Your Kingdom, by reason that the Coin which Passeth in Payments is generally Clipped, and that no other Remedy is like to prove Effectual for Preventing the Increase of this Evil, but to make Clipping Unprofitable for the future, Do most Humbly Address to Your Majesty, to Issue out Your Royal Proclamation, That from such Day or Days, as Your Majesty shall think fit, no Clipped Money, of any Sort, shall Pass in any Payment, as the Currant Coin of this Kingdom.

Matth. Johnson,
Clerk of the House of Commons

IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED.

His Majesties most Gracious Answer to the Address

That according to the Lords Desire in their Address, His Majesty will Issue out His Proclamation with what speed the Nature of the thing will Admit.

FINIS.
